

Minutes of the ANG Monthly Meeting January 15, 2004

The meeting was called to order at 7:00 P.M. by Pat Giarraffa

Linda Elkow then presented the stitch of the month. She not only had examples of the stitch itself, but had numerous variations of how to use it. She also brought in a finished piece where she used the stitch.

The business meeting was called to order at 8:00 by President, Pat Giarraffa.

Treasurer, Betty Rosenberger, reported a balance at the end of November of $4,659.01. The balance at the end of December was $5,485.01.

Membership, Linda Elkow, did not have any new members to report this month. Currently our group has 80 members.

Ways and Means, Kay Schmitt, reported receiving over $600 at the Borders gift wrapping in December. There was also $540 that came from Entrav commissions for the trip to France.

Newsletter, Suzanne Nielsen, not present. Did not send a report.

Promotion and Philanthropy, Jane Cornue, announced that the Clayton Library will be having an exhibit in September. She also reminded us of the State Fair which will be held August 12-22.

The canvas for the Ronald McDonald house was brought to the meeting for the next stitcher to volunteer to work on. There was not a volunteer from the group so she will take it to the Monday morning meeting to seek out a volunteer.

Programs, Barb O'Connell, reminded everyone that she has copies and kits available of all past stitches of the month.

Michelle Roberts will be here for the February meeting providing lectures to both the evening and morning meetings. Margaret will be coordinating dinner plans with Michelle Roberts at the Canyon Café at 4:30 prior to the Thursday evening meeting. Anyone wishing to attend should contact Margaret.

Sunshine, Maureen Clever, reported a very successful 1st ever ANG and ENG Christmas luncheon.

Web Site, Sharon Key, not present. Did not send a report.

We were reminded that the Saturday stitch in will be at Ladue Chapel on January 17.

The meeting was adjourned by Pat at 8:35.
