

Minutes of the ANG Monthly Meeting May 24, 2004

Linda Elkow gave a very interesting talk on color.

The meeting was called to order at 11:15 a.m. by Pat Giarraffia.

Minutes: Christina Stineman has resigned as Secretary and the board has accepted her resignation and approved the appointment of Brenda Ramsdell to finish the one-year term of Secretary.

Treasurer: Betty Rosenberger reported a balance of $5,400.72 as of April 30.

Membership: Linda Elkow reported that we have 79 members at the current time and no new members. She will be selling chapter pins for $5.00 at the meetings.

Newsletter: Kathleen Dunn was not present. The next deadline for the newsletter is June 17th and everyone is encouraged to submit articles.

Philanthropy and Public Relations: Peggy Nedreau was not present. There will be an exhibit at the St. Louis County Library Headquarters Branch in July. Everyone is invited to display their pieces, even if only partially complete. A suggestion was made to submit the American Flag piece that everyone is working on and people may see it in various stages of completion. Please bring the pieces to the June luncheon or June stitch-in with your name on the back. The Children of the World project is ready to be passed on, please contact Peggy.

Ways and Means: Kay Schmitt was not present. The gift wrapping at Borders is scheduled for the Friday after Thanksgiving and two days in December.

Programs: Linda Lesh was not present. We will be working on "Berryville" at the stitch-ins over the summer. The project is on the ANG website under 2002 Sampler.

Sunshine/Historian/Social: Barb Smith reminded everyone about the June 5th luncheon at Maryville Marriott.

Webmaster: Sharon Key was not present and had no report.

Old Business: There was no business to report.

New Business: There was no business to report.

The meeting was adjourned at 11:30 am.

Respectfully submitted by Brenda Ramsdell.
